

Manual 4:

The norms set out by the Department for discharge of its function:

The Department has recently approved and launched the Information Technology Policy 2004 with the objective of giving direction to the efforts of the Government in making, information technology all pervasive and help in reaping benefits of IT.

In other respects its performance is governed by the rules and regulations enumerated in Manual 2.